Prayer of the Day

Let us pray that we accept the authority of Jesus.

Great and loving God, we thank you for sending your Son Jesus with authority to teach and to heal. Make us ready to listen to him in all our doubts and confusion, and to trust in him in all our troubles. For he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer Points

- For those who spread the gospel - that they would receive encouragement from God
- That all those who hear God's word would repent and believe
- That those who are afraid of God's anger would find his mercy in Jesus
- That those trapped in cycles of addiction or violence or crime might know the freedom that repentance brings
- For church leaders and all those who must exercise their authority with wisdom
- For boldness in confessing Christ's name
- For places in the world where hatred, violence, and destruction seem to be out of control
- For Teachers and students as they prepare for the new school year

Questions about attending Holy Communion in the Lutheran Church?

'Holy Communion is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ given with bread and wine, instituted by Christ himself for us Christians to eat and drink.'

Come to this sacrament:

- as a sinner who wants God's forgiveness;
- as a baptised believer who trusts that Jesus died for the forgiveness of sin;
- as a guest who humbly accepts what Jesus gives - his true body and blood with the bread and wine; and,
- as a witness who gladly joins in this public confession of the death of Christ until he comes (1 Corinthians 11:26).

Should you not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may remain in your pew or come to the altar to receive a blessing - crossing your arms to signify your intention.
